

Randy Dean, MBA, CVP
(Certified Virtual Presenter)
The E-mail Sanity Expert®

Bio Blurb:

Randy Dean, The E-mail Sanity Expert®, is a professional speaker and expert on time & e-mail management and the related use of technology. For 30 years, Randy has been leading programs for major corporate, university, association, and governmental audiences. Obsessed with time management and personal productivity, he left a successful career as a university administrator, professional marketer, and media strategist to become a leading speaker and trainer. The author of the 2009 Amazon bestseller, Taming the E-mail Beast, and the newer video-integrated Taming the E-mail Beast REBOOT eBook, Randy is also the producer and creator of several highly regarded video-based self-study courses that are posted on many of the major online learning platforms. He has led programs for thousands of inspired students, managers, and professionals on being more productive with their time, e-mail and technology. His highly informative and entertaining speaking, training and webinar programs leave audience members with immediately usable tools, strategies, and tips for saving time and effort, finding more focus and less distraction, and achieving higher efficiency and productivity.

Randy is best known for his programs on time, project, people, distraction, and especially e-mail management using popular tools like Microsoft Outlook & 365, Gmail/Google Workspace apps, and smart phones & tablets. He now also features tips and tools in popular new AI assistants like Copilot, Gemini, and ChatGPT. His growing YouTube channel provides numerous short video tips on key software tools like Outlook and Gmail, as well as content on key productivity and time management strategies, techniques, and issues.

His speaking and training programs are consistently some of the highest-rated programs for the many clients he speaks for, including at major conferences and conventions, Fortune 500 organizations, top universities, governmental agencies, and leading nonprofits -- basically anyone struggling to better manage their time, e-mail, and smart phone/tablet devices. (And he makes these topics fun and engaging too!)

He has previously been interviewed by numerous media outlets including radio, television, newspaper, and blog/podcast sites. He is a 20-year member of the National Speakers Association (NSA) and also a member of the Michigan Society of Association Executives.

I make tech management topics fun and accessible!
